

A prayer as we begin our concert . . .

JESUS, BE PRESENT NOW

Jesus, be present now,
Our hearts in true devotion bow;
Thy Spirit send with grace divine,
And let Thy truth within us shine.

Open our lips to sing Thy praise,
Our hearts to Thee in worship raise.
Renew our faith that we may know
Thy guiding strength within our souls.

Jesus, be present now,
Our hearts in true devotion bow;
Thy Spirit send with grace divine,
And let Thy truth within us shine. Amen.

Duke of Sax Weimer, 1598-1662

"THE JOY OF CHRISTMAS"

Lutheran High North's
8th Annual Christmas Concert
Sunday, December 13, 1987, 7:30 p.m.

WOODWIND DUET (Pre-Concert Music)

Martha Shaffer and Lorraine McKinney have teamed up to prepare two short selections written for flute and clarinet.

Carol for Christmas

Traditional
arr. by John Kinyon

GLORY GIVERS

With 5 Sunday morning church services, 3 LHN chapels, and 5 performances of "The Light Brigade" mini-musical under their belts, the Glory Givers will soon begin serious work toward an April 8-11 "Tour" in the Austin area. They will officially begin our concert with the opening prayer:

Jesus, Be Present Now

Adapted Text by Wilhelm II
Duke of Sax Weimer, 1598-1662
Original Tune by Dave and Jean Perry

Infant Holy

Polish Carol
arr. by Craig S. Kingsbury

FRESHMAN CHOIR

This year's Freshman Choir has just successfully completed 4 presentations of a cute mini-musical based on the story of the Prodigal Son. Keno Sims starred as "the wayward one" in "Barbecue For Ben." Next up for Freshman Choir is the city-wide Mass Choir Festival to be held at Trinity-Downtown on Sunday, March 6.

CONCERT CHOIR

Concert Choir has worked very hard preparing for this Christmas Concert. These four songs carry the bulk of the "message." "The Joy of Christmas," our theme song for this evening, is a conglomeration of tidbits from 11 of your favorite Christmas tunes. Listen to see how many of them you can name.

The Joy of Christmas

arr. by Van Denman Thompson

"O How Joyfully" is an underused Christmas standard, one of my personal favorites. "See the Grand Procession," an original Epiphany carol, gives a sense of the wonder and joy that the Three Wisemen must have felt as they followed the star to Bethlehem and first beheld the newborn babe. And as for "Do You Hear What I Hear?" - who can resist the tuneful message of one of the best-loved Christmas songs of all time?

O How Joyfully

Latin Hymn

words by Johannes Falk, 1816
adapted and arr. by Walter Ehret

See the Grand Procession

by Hal Hopson

Do You Hear What I Hear?

words and music by Noel Regney and Gloria Shayne
arr. by Harry Simeone

The Concert Choir is indeed fortunate to have ready access to the services of a very talented young musician - Glen Stephens, our piano accompanist for this evening. Future plans for Concert Choir include Sunday morning church services, LHN school chapels and preparation of 3 special songs to be sung jointly with the choir from Lutheran High South for the March 6 Mass Choir Festival at Trinity-Downtown.

GIRLS CHOIR

A Christmas tradition since our very first Christmas concert in December of 1980, Girls Choir can deliver the "message" in a way that no other music medium can. Thanks to Rachel McClure for insuring that this worthwhile tradition has been upheld once again!

"A Special Night" was first performed in 1981 by a trio consisting of Melissa McSpadden, Suzan Paskett and Renee Hempel. Tonight's Girls Choir is seven times bigger, but the message is still as simple and beautiful as it was way back then:

In a humble stable is born a King,
A gift of God who is sent from above
To bring us peace and love.

A Special Night

words and music by Don Besig

As we pause here at the conclusion of the first half of our concert, we sincerely thank you for coming, wish you a most blessed Christmas, and hope that we have in some small way helped to stir the true spirit of Christmas within your hearts.

And now . . .

INTERMISSION, OFFERING AND WHATEVER!

CONCERT BAND

As we take a Freewill Offering, we are proud to introduce 4 Senior Band members who will conduct 4 lighthearted selections from Warren Barker's arrangement of Christmas tunes called "Christmas Folio-Pack:"

CONCERT BAND

This year's Concert Band is the "best ever," and new, longer rehearsal times are really starting to pay off! With 3 home football games, 3 pep rallies, 8th Grade Visitation Day, and now Christmas almost behind us, it's time to get really serious about the February 21 Mass Band Festival at Lutheran High North AND a March 12-16 Tour to FLORIDA!

Ding! Dong! Merrily On High French Carol
arr. by James D. Ployhar

A Legend of Kings (A Christmas Fantasy)
by Charles Richard Spinney

Santa Claus Is Comin' To Town
