Art Exhibit 2001

The Art Work and Photography displayed this evening is the culmination of 18 weeks of work.

One section depicts our entries into this years VFW contest. Another section illustrates our entrees for this years Houston Livestock and rodeo art show the photography section demonstrates the efforts of our fledgling camera buffs as they try to complete assigned subject matter.

Additional art work show in is a prelude for our entries into this years TAPPS district art competition. More work is in the making.

Of further interest, is Carley Wolfram's first place entry in the Houston Chronicle's editorial art competition, or the runner entry Cindy Linarez.

Please feel free to check out the Beginning Art pictures outside room 213.
