THOSE WEDDING BELLS SHALL NOT RING OUT! (or, The Bride wore Green Chili Peppers)

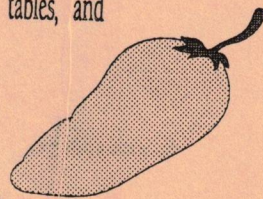

Welcome to Cindy's Central City Herb Pharmacy and Chili Parlor in Central City Colorado! This hub of activity in a small mining town is center stage for a show of comedy, treachery, and romance, in the days when gold was in the hills . . . where it should have stayed.

A big central city thank you to all involved who made this LHN production possible. Special thanks and an xtra glass of sarsaparilla to Mr. Stuenkel for all the time and expertise, and to Mr. Hall for designing posters, building chili parlor tables, and "doing up this here program".
