This composition is suggestive of the moods and sounds of early civilizations. Since there has not been an attempt to depict any specific culture, this piece may conjure thoughts of early peoples of this continent. Or it may bring to mind even earlier populations who used the bones of Mammoths and other animals as musical instruments thousands of years ago.

We invite all LHN musicians and alumni to join the Concert Choir for our final selection.

Special thanks to all of our friends and family for their continued support of music and art at LHN. Big thanks also to Mr. Sumrall, Dusty Drosche, Brandy Read, Korrine Kirk, Lee Goehring, Sheri Stenzel, Sary White, Jason Cooke, Patrick Cochran, Amy Seybold, and everyone who helped with the Art Show preparation. Thank you Debby Fischer for this years cover design. And most of all, thanks to God for giving us the gifts of art and music that we share tonight.

Please join us for a reception and viewing of student art work in the gymnasium.
