Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
To His feet your tribute bring; Ransomed,
healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore His praises sing; Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.

Fatherlike he tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame He knows;
In His hand He gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes. Alleluia, alleluia!
Widely yet His mercy flows.

Laudate Dominum in sanctis ejus:
Laudate eum in firmamento virtutis ejus.
Laudate eum in virtutibus eius:
Laudate eum secundum multitudinem magnitudinis eius.

Laudate eum in sono tubae:
Laudate eum in psalterio et cithara.
Laudate eum in tympano et choro:
Laudate eum in chordis et organo.
Laudate eum in cymbalis benesonantibus:
Laudate eum in cymbalis jubilationis.
Omnis spiritus laudet Dominum.

Praise the Lord in his sacred places,
Praise him in the firmament of his power.
Praise him for his mighty acts,
Praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him with the sound of the trumpet,
Praise him with the psaltery and the harp.
Praise him with the timbrel and the dance,
Praise him with strings and pipes.
Praise him with high-sounding cymbals,
Praise him with cymbals of joy.
Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord!

Program Notes

Flourish For Wind Band

Ralph Vaughan Williams

Ralph Vaughan Williams premiered Flourish for Wind Band in London on April 1, 1939 as an overture to the pageant Music and the People. The work is characteristic of Vaughan Williams' style, and appealed to audiences of the time.

Morale in England was low during the Great Depression. Edward VIII created a scandal by giving up the throne to marry a twice-divorced American, and his brother, George VI, took over as monarch in 1936. Germany threatened to take over Europe and the British Isles. Unfortunately, much British music written in this period often alienated listeners

A few months before World War II a musical celebration was held to lift the spirits of the English. Although the April 1st date had previously commemorated King Edward's coronation, this celebration was in honor of music and the people and not intended for aristocrats and royalty. Vaughan Williams' Flourish premiered at the celebration but was not heard again until the 1970's. Even after its publication the piece was not mentioned in any sources listing his complete works.

Other band works of Vaughan Williams include English Folk Song Suite, Sea Songs, and Toccata Marziale. Each work are considered classics in band repertoire, and are the staple of quality band programs.

(Dr. Craig Paré, conductor DePauw University Bands)

Top Gun

arranged by Robert W. Smith

This piece is a medley of music from the motion picture Top Gun, starring Tom Cruise, Kelly McGillis, and Val Kilmer. This medley includes Top Gun Anthem, Take My Breath Away, Danger Zone, & Mighty Wings.

Robert W. Smith (b. 1958) is one of the most popular and prolific composers of concert band and orchestral literature in America today. He has over 500 publications in print. From professional ensembles such as the United States Navy Band and the Atlanta Symphony to school bands and orchestras throughout the world, his music speaks to audiences in any concert setting. We have performed several of his pieces, including The Great Locomotive Chase.

Lauda Anima

Stephen Bulla

This music is majestic and full of bold fanfares, depicting an atmosphere of royal pageantry. The basis of the work is a 19th Century hymn known as Lauda Anima, which roughly translated from Latin means, "to praise life." This hymn tune is found twice in our current Lutheran hymnody in Hymnal Supplement '98. Two verses of the hymn Praise My Soul the King of Heaven are printed in the program for your meditation during our performance.
