Texas, Our Texas!

William J. Marsh
Tom C. Rhodes & Don Bierschenk

*Texas, Our Texas! all hail the mighty State!
Texas, Our Texas! so wonderful so great!
Boldest and grandest, withstanding ev'ry test
O Empire wide and glorious, you stand supremely blest.*

*Chorus:
God bless you Texas! And keep you brave and strong,
That you may grow in power and worth, throughout the ages long.
God bless you Texas! And keep you brave and strong,
That you may grow in power and worth, throughout the ages long.*

Program Notes

Northwest Suite

John O'Reilly

This three-movement suite was commissioned by the Western International Band Clinic for their 1983 convention. I discover this piece this summer as part of my graduate program at the American Band College of Southern Oregon University. The suite depicts three distinct Northwestern locales. Movement one is a tribute to the dramatic Space Needle in Seattle, Washington. Movement two is Victoria, the quaint island capitol of British Columbia, Canada, and movement three Oregon's Mount Hood.

Fanfare Prelude on "God of Our Fathers"

Jim Curnow

This treatment of the National Hymn features our trumpets, with brilliant fanfares. The piece also includes a beautiful section of the chorale arranged for the clarinets, and a brief fugal section.

Snakes!

Thomas Duffy

Snakes! is a short piece of program music which explores different sounds which one might associate with different snakes. Big snakes, little snakes, cute snakes, writhing piles of snakes, swaying cobras, and dangerous snakes are all represented throughout. After an introduction which hints of hissing and the dangerous potential of snakes, the "rattlers" in the percussion section are joined by an overlay of melodies. One of the melodies resembles the tune with which the Indian snakecharmer entices the swaying cobra from the wicker basket. The almost comical timpani line is suggestive of the slow-moving boa constrictor. Rapid bursts of chromatic runs bring to mind coiled snakes which strike without warning. The piece ends with a section of writhing tendrils of sounds (the snake pit) and a brief recapitulation to the catchy melody and rhythm of the snakecharmer's cobra. (Score)

Sticks Ahoy

David Brentwood

This piece features the percussion section of the band. In this case all percussion parts are covered by Julia Joy Burroughs.

Deep in the Jungle

Nathan Farrell

Please journey with us to the deepest, darkest jungles in the world and meet some of the creatures that live there. First, hear the trumpeting and slow, heavy footsteps of the "Enormous Elephant." Then, stand very still as the mysterious and dangerous "Slithering Snake" passes by. Finally, enjoy the antics of the silly "Mimicking Monkey" as he imitates everything you do! Enjoy Deep in the Jungle.

T.W.A. (Trumpets with Attitude)

Michael Sweeney

This piece features solo trumpeter, Kevin Marotzke, of Pilgrim Lutheran School as he jams along with the groove set by the rest of the Jazz/Rock Band.

Pink Panther

arr. Victor Lopez

This great arrangement of the classic Henry Mancini tune will have you rockin' in your seat. Trumpets and saxes each get a chance at the melody, while the low brass provides a solid base and the clarinets and flutes add a disco flavor.

Royal Coronation Dances

Bob Margolis

This is a collection of three Renaissance dances. The first movement depicts the guests, both noble and common, flanked by flag and banner bearers, arriving at the palace to view the majestic event. They are festive, their flags swirling the air, their cloaks brightly colored. In the second movement, the queen in stately measure moves to take her place on the throne as leader and protector of the realm. In the third movement, the jesters of the court entertain the guests with wild games of sport. (Score)

Beauty and the Beast

arr. Calvin Custer

This medley of pieces from the classic Disney movie includes favorites such as Belle, Beauty and the Beast, Gaston, Something There, and Be Our Guest.

Texas, Our Texas

William J. Marsh

The Texas state legislature adopted this song as the official state song in 1929. Please join us and sing if you wish!

Michael Staub is a 2002 graduate of Concordia University, Nebraska. Michael is in his third year as the conductor of the Lutheran High North Concert Band. He also leads the marching band, pep band, and musical orchestra. Mr. Staub also teaches band at Immanuel, Memorial, and Our Savior Lutheran Schools.

Dorothy Burroughs is a 1975 graduate of Concordia University, River Forest, IL. She received her Master's in Music Education from the University of Houston. She is the director of the Lutheran Education Association's Instrumental Music Program (LEAH-IMP). She has been on LEAH's staff for 17 years. She teaches at Trinity (Downtown), Memorial, and Pilgrim Lutheran Schools.

Monday Night Bands meet for six Mondays in the fall and six weeks in the spring. The Gloria! Honor Band and the Jazz/Rock Band give our Houston area Lutheran junior high band students a chance for more band rehearsal. They also gain important performance opportunities, including a fall concert and a spring concert tour to local grade schools.
