John-David Struckmann received his Bachelor of Music Education from Valparaiso University in 1985 and a Masters of Education from Queens College, Flushing, New York in 2003. He earned certification in the Kodaly method from New York University in 1997. Beginning in 1986, JD served as choir director or minister of music for various churches and schools in Ohio, New Jersey and New York City. He has taught from pre-K to college ages in vocal, classroom and instrumental music. He also enjoys writing and arranging music. In 2001 he released a recording, "Signs of Life." This is JD's first year teaching at Lutheran High North, where his duties include Concert Choir, Glory Givers, Jazz Band, music theory, and small group band lessons at Epiphany, Immanuel, Memorial, and Our Savior Lutheran Schools. When he is not teaching at LHN or the occasional Jazz History class for Concordia University, Texas, he teaches private piano and instrumental lessons and performs with the Sounds of the South Dance Orchestra. He enjoys cooking, gardening, running, cycling, fishing, golf and building things. He lives in Houston with his loving wife Cindy and their two boys Andrew and Stephen.

Special thanks to:

Mr. David Waterman and the faculty of LHN for their support of music.
Mr. Michael Staub for all he does to support the choir and its director.
Mr. Paul Stuenkel for his eye for detail and relentless desire for improvement.
The parents of these fine students for their encouragement in all we do.
