

Lutheran High North

Lutheran High North provides quality academics and meaningful ministry, and prepares students for the next level and to be leaders in their schools, churches and communities.

Lutheran High North's music program includes marching band, concert band, jazz band, various solos and ensembles, women's chorus, concert choir, and Glory Givers. For any information about Lutheran High North's music program please contact Michael Staub at michaelstaub@lea-hou.org or John-David Struckmann at jdstruckmann@lea-hou.org or by phone at 713-880-3131.

Lutheran High North Concert Band

The Lutheran High North Band performs for a variety of events, including marching for football games, pep band for basketball games, morning church services at member congregations, the Christmas concert, spring concert, and concert tours, while learning the basic elements of music. The Band consistently earns top ratings at the TPSMEA state marching competition each October and at the TAPPS state music competition in April. The band has enjoyed past tours to St. Louis, Chicago, Phoenix, San Diego, and various cities throughout Texas.

Michael Staub

Mr. Staub is a 2002 graduate of Concordia University, Nebraska. In 2007, he graduated from the American Band College of Southern Oregon University with a master's in wind conducting. Michael is in his seventh year as the conductor of the Lutheran High North Concert Band. He also leads the marching band and pep band. Mr. Staub also teaches band or band lessons at Epiphany, Immanuel, Memorial, Our Savior, and Trinity Lutheran Schools. He lives in Houston with his wife, Clare.

Lutheran High North Concert Choir

The Lutheran High North Concert Choir performs for a variety of events, including worship services at area Lutheran congregations, the Christmas concert, choral vespers, and the spring concert while learning the basic elements of music and music reading. The Concert Choir has toured in the past to locations such as New York City, Denver, Cleveland, Valparaiso, and Fort Wayne.

John-David Struckmann

Mr. Struckmann received his Bachelor of Music Education from Valparaiso University in 1985 and a Masters of Education from Queens College, Flushing, New York in 2003. He earned certification in the Kodaly method from New York University in 1997. Beginning in 1986, JD served as choir director or minister of music for various churches and schools in Ohio, New Jersey and New York City. He has taught from pre-K to college ages in vocal, classroom and instrumental music. He also enjoys writing and arranging music. In 2001 he released a recording, "Signs of Life." This is JD's second year teaching at Lutheran High North, where his duties include Concert Choir, Glory Givers, Jazz Band, music theory, and small group band lessons at Epiphany, Immanuel, Memorial, and Our Savior Lutheran Schools. When he is not teaching at LHN or the occasional Jazz History class for Concordia University, Texas, he teaches private piano and instrumental lessons and performs with the Sounds of the South Dance Orchestra. He enjoys cooking, gardening, running, cycling, fishing, golf and building things. He lives in Houston with his loving wife Cindy and their two boys, Andrew and Stephen.
