

Lutheran High North

Lutheran High North provides quality academics and meaningful ministry, and prepares students for the next level and to be leaders in their schools, churches and communities.

Lutheran High North's music program includes marching band, concert band, jazz band, various solos and ensembles, concert choir, and Glory Givers. For any information about Lutheran High North's music program please contact Michael Staub at michaelstaub@lea-hou.org or by phone at 713-880-3131.

Lutheran High North Concert Band

The Lutheran High North Band performs for a variety of events, including marching for football games, pep band for basketball games, morning church services at member congregations, the Christmas worship service, spring concert, and concert tours, while learning the basic elements of music. The group consistently earns top ratings at the TPSMEA state marching band competition in October, as well as the TAPPS region and state concert band competitions in the spring. The LHN Band tours every other year and has visited cities such as San Antonio, Giddings, Harlingen and Victoria in Texas and Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Phoenix, and San Diego across the rest of the United States. Many students go on to play at universities across the United States once they leave Lutheran High North.

Lutheran High North Concert Choir & Glory Givers

The Lutheran High North Concert Choir performs for a variety of events, including worship services at area Lutheran congregations, the Christmas concert, and spring concert while learning the basic elements of music and music reading. The Concert Choir has toured in the past to locations such as New York City, Denver, St. Louis, Little Rock, Cleveland, and Fort Wayne. The Glory Givers is a select group of singers that meets on Wednesday evenings and sings in a variety of venues throughout the Houston area.

Michael Staub is a 2002 graduate of Concordia University, Nebraska. In 2007, Mr. Staub graduated from the American Band College of Southern Oregon University with a master's in wind conducting. He has been accepted in the doctoral program at the University of Houston and will pursue his degree in Music Education beginning this summer. Michael is in his ninth year as the conductor of the Lutheran High North Concert Band. He also leads the marching band, pep band, and musical orchestra. Mr. Staub also teaches band or band lessons at Epiphany, Memorial, Our Savior, and Trinity Lutheran Schools and St. Theresa Catholic School. When he is not working, Mr. Staub enjoys spending time with his wife, Clare.

John-David Struckmann is in his seventh year as an instructor in IMP, and his fourth year as the conductor of the Lutheran High North Jazz Band, Concert Choir, and Glory Givers. He has taught music of all kinds in our church's pre-schools, elementary schools, high schools and colleges for nearly twenty years. He has been leading music in Lutheran churches since he was fifteen when he organized a children's choir in his home congregation. Along the way he managed to get degrees from Valparaiso University and Queen College. He has written and arranged music for almost any ensemble or setting. In 2000 he recorded and released a CD of original works and jazz settings of traditional hymns entitled, "Signs of Life." His greatest accomplishment is managing to marry a wonderful woman,
